

2006 Session moves rapidly as lawmakers review legislation – from immigration to game fish

filibuster by Sen. Vincent Fort of the 39th in the final moments of the 2006 Session of the Georgia General Assembly may have prevented several pieces of legislation from passing – but more than 400 pieces of legislation did pass both chambers of the legislature and were sent to the Governor for his signature or veto.

One of the most talked about pieces of legislation this year surrounded the issue of illegal immigrants in Georgia. Sen. Chip Rogers of the  $21^{\rm st}$  authored Senate Bill 529-The Georgia Security and Immigration Compliance Act. The bill brought hundreds of illegal immigrants to the State Capitol on several different occasions during the Session to lobby and influence legislators prior to final passage of the bill. Many of the immigrants who did not have a valid form of identification were denied access to the State Capitol – a security measure that has been in effect since September 11, 2001.

The Senate also tackled a measure that would severely limit the freedoms of sexual predators, and the hearings that were held brought several people convicted of that crime to the State Capitol to testify against the proposed legislation. Legislators heard hours and hours of testimony from those on both sides of the issue before agreeing to language in the final bill.

Also known as the "Castle Doctrine," Senate Bill 396 was introduced early in the Session amid much fanfare and media glare. The legislation, introduced by Sen. Greg Goggans of the 7th, essentially states that a person has no duty to retreat while under attack. The measure further allows the person being attacked to use force, including deadly force, for protection purposes.

Senate Bill 84, introduced by Sen. Cecil Staton of the 18th, clarified language in legislation that passed in 2005 regarding voter identification cards. Last year, Judge Harold Murphy struck down a law passed during the 2005 Legislative Session that would require voters to show a photo identification card prior to voting. The language currently is undergoing review by the U.S. Justice Department, which must approve any changes in Georgia's voting procedures under the Voting Rights Act of 1965. The new legislation also gives any resident of Georgia the opportunity to receive a free photo identification card from the state.

Several bills affecting Georgia's public schools also passed this year, including a measure that requires school systems to spend 65 percent of all state money on the classroom, the Truth in Class Size Act, which determines the maximum individual class sizes in public schools and the parental consent stipulation to withdraw a student from school.

he Senate said goodbye to some very dear friends this year – some old and some new. The Dean of the Senate, Terrell Starr of the 44th is retiring after nearly 40 years of service, and Sen. Sam Zamarripa of the 36th is retiring after serving four years in the Senate. Sen. Casey Cagle of the 49th, Sen. Brian Kemp of the 46th, Steen Miles of the 43rd and Sen. Bill Stephens of the 27th all are running for higher office, and will not return as State Senators in 2007. Secretary of the Senate Frank Eldridge died on February 4, 2006 and we will miss him dearly.

Goodbye:

Immigration

Senate Bill 529

The Georgia Security and Immigration Compliance Act passed the legislature this year and requires all adults applying for public benefits to verify their eligibility for medical, welfare or other state benefits (this does not apply to children attending school, needing medical attention, etc.). The law further compels all public employers, those who contract with the government and government subcontractors to register with the Federal Work Authorization Program by July 1, 2007, in order to verify information on any new employee. Furthermore, the measure requires all Georgia employers to verify legal status of all employees hired on or after January 1, 2008, and claim a state income tax deduction on the salary of each employee. Also, employers must withhold a six percent tax from contract workers who are unable to provide valid tax information, such as a taxpayer identification or social security number. In addition, county, municipal and regional jails must determine legal status of prisoners who have been charged with a felony offense or a DUI.

Sexual Predators

House Bill 1059

Georgia's sexual predator law may well be one of the nation's toughest now. This legislation will protect the state's children by imposing strict mandatory prison and probation sentences on sexual offenders. The measure requires monitoring devices for life for all offenders classified as sexually dangerous predators and now aggravated assault, kidnapping a child under age 14, aggravated sodomy of a child under the age of 10, rape, aggravated child molestation, sexual assault against a child in custody under the age of 14, incest of a child under the age of 14 and aggravated sexual battery all will carry a mandatory sentence of at least 25 years and a lifetime of probation. Furthermore, procedures affecting the registration of sexual offenders will be strengthened, and prisoners will be forced to register with the local sheriff's office prior to release. In addition, registered sexual offenders may not live or loiter within 1,000 feed of a child care facility church, school, or any other area where children congregate. They may not work within 1,000 feet of a child care facility, school or church.

Senate Judiciary Committee

Eminent Domain

House Bill 1313

The Landowners Bill of Rights and Private Property Protection Act creates stricter definitions of blight, public use and economic development. Any use of the power of eminent domain must be for public use only – not for economic development purposes. Property owners will be given ample notice if his or her property is being targeted for condemnation and written notice of process rights. Should property not be put to public use within five years, the previous owner of the property may apply to the government that condemned the property for reconveyance or compensation.

Sen. Don Balfour of the 9th

Senate Judiciary Committee

House Resolution 1306

The amendment to the Georgia Constitution to restrict the use of eminent domain as stated in House Bill 1313. The Constitutional Amendment will be voted on in the General Election on November 7, 2006.

Sen. Don Balfour of the 9th

Senate Judiciary Committee

Senate Bill 462

This legislation requires each local Sheriff to develop and implement a comprehensive security plan for the local county courthouse and any courthouse annex. The plan must be submitted for review by the Superior Court's chief judge of the circuit wherein the courthouse is located. The Sheriff must provide to the local county commission the estimated cost of the security plan and a schedule for implementation 30 days prior to its adoption. The development and implementation of a security plan and all related technology will be subject to the annual budget approved for the sheriff's office by the county commission. Courthouse security plans will be considered a confidential matter of public security – exempt from public disclosure laws and the review of the proposed plans by the county commission will be exempt from open records or open meetings statutes.

Child Support Senate Bill 382

Beginning January 1, 2007, child support awards will be calculated using the monthly gross income of both parents — rather than factoring in only the income of the non-custodial parent. The court may grant a "parenting time adjustment," meaning that the award may be adjusted if the child resides with both parents equally or the non-custodial parent spends an inordinate amount of time with the child. The courts also will have the discretion to determine an award amount based on the basic child support obligation table. Parents with previous awards may petition the court for a discretionary modification if there has been a 15 percent change (or more) in a parent's income or if the child's needs have changed significantly.

Sen. Seth Harp of the 29th Senate Judiciary Committee

Senate Bill 419

This legislation requires retailers to withhold lottery prizes of $2,500 or more if there is a claim for delinquent child support filed by the Child Support Enforcement Agency of the Georgia Department of Human Resources. This legislation becomes effective on July 1, 2006.

Sen. Seth Harp of the 29th

Senate Special Judiciary Committee

Protection

Senate Bill 396

Also known as the "Castle Doctrine," this measure stipulates that there is no duty to retreat from a situation when a person feels threatened in a place he or she is legally allowed to be. The legislation further provides immunity from criminal prosecution when the person under attack uses threats or force — including deadly force — if the attacker is using similar force. Immunity from civil liability does not apply to lawsuits brought by innocent bystanders who might be injured.

Sen. Greg Goggans of the 7th Senate Judiciary Committee

Known as Mercedes' Law, this bill is named for an 11 year old girl who has undergone numerous reconstructive surgeries after being attacked by a pit bull in 2005. The legislation defines what a vicious dog is and mandates that a vicious dog must be restrained by a leash and under the physical restraint of a responsible person. Owners of such dogs who fail to comply with the law shall be guilty of a misdemeanor of high and aggravated nature.

Sen. Ronnie Chance of the 16th

Senate Public Safety and Homeland Security Committee

Senate Bill 390

Beginning with fiscal year 2008, local school systems must spend at least 65 percent of their total operating expenditures on direct classroom instruction. Local school systems spending less than the 65 percent minimum must increase their direct expenditures by a minimum of two percent each fiscal year until they reaches the 65 percent minimum.

Senate Bill 79

Public schools will have the opportunity to provide students in grades 9-12 an elective Bible Study course. The State Board of Education must adopt curriculum by February 1, 2007 for such elective courses in the History and Literature of the Old Testament Era and the History and Literature of the New Testament Era. The Old and New Testaments must be taught in an objective and non-devotional manner with no attempt to indoctrinate students and the students may be assigned a wide range of reading materials for the course including selections from secular historical and cultural works as well as selections from other religious and cultural traditions.

Sen. Tommie Williams of the 19th

Senate Education and Youth Committee

Senate Bill 413

At the beginning of each school year, parents/legal guardians will receive information regarding school clubs and organizations — including the name of the club, its mission or purpose, the faculty advisor's name and a description of planned activities. Parents/guardians will have a form to fill out regarding the Student Code of Conduct, and that form will contain information giving them the opportunity for his/her child to decline participation in a school club or organization. This legislation also requires non-emancipated minors who are older than 16 and have not completed all the requirements for a high school diploma, to have written permission from a parent or legal guardian prior to withdrawing from school. Each local board of education must adopt a policy regarding student withdrawals by January 1, 2007.

Sen. Dan Moody of the 56th

2006 Legislative Wrap Up Page 4 of 131 Senate Bill 468

The State Board of Education will establish a grant program to attract proven high-performance principals to lead low-performing middle and high schools. The program will include funding for salary supplements to local boards for the grants. The principal must have a proven track record of improving a low-performing school or taking an average or high-performing school to a higher level within the past five years.

Voting Senate Bill 84

This legislation will allow any registered voter to obtain a free Georgia Voter Identification Card and requires the State Election Board to outfit all county boards of registrars with the necessary equipment to produce these cards locally. In addition, it establishes a voter education program to address voting procedures for voting by absentee and the proper types of voter identification needed when voting at the polls. Valid forms of photo identification cards include: a Georgia Driver's License; a Georgia Voter Identification Card or other identification card issued by the state of Georgia or the United States; a U.S. passport; a valid photo identification card issued by the United States Government, the state of Georgia, or any county, municipality, board, authority or other entity of Georgia, a United States military identification card or a valid tribal identification card.

Sen. Cecil Staton of the 18th

Senate State and Local Governmental Operations Committee

Senate Bill 500

A pilot program will be implemented in November to configure Georgia's electronic voting machines with verifiable paper records of the votes cast by each voter in one precinct in Bibb, Camden and Cobb counties in the November 2006 general election and any runoff vote. This program will print out a paper ballot, recording how the voter voted so that the voter can verify his or her vote, and then the paper ballot will remain with each voting machine. The Secretary of State's Office will verify the votes by conducting a manual audit within 30 days of the general election. A public hearing in each of the precincts will be held following the audit and results of the audit will be presented to the members of the Georgia General Assembly. The paper records will be counted only in the case of a recount or a contested election.

Sen. Bill Stephens of the 27th

Senate State and Local Governmental Operations Committee

An ever-popular annual piece of legislation, this measure authorizes a sales tax holiday for school supplies and energy efficient appliances. The sales tax holiday is from August 3-6, 2006.

Sen. Casey Cagle of the 49th

Senate Finance Committee

Senate Bill 572

This legislation establishes the crime of medical assistance managed care fraud on behalf of the new managed care program offered by the Georgia Department of Community Health. The measure also limits the ability of the Department of Community Health to make claims against the estates of deceased Medicaid recipients for medical assistance payments. The Department of Community Health must delay making claims against the estate if the dependents or heirs agree to pay the full amount of the claim. No claim may be made against the first $100,000 of the estate.

Sen. Greg Goggans of the 7th

Senate Judiciary Committee

House Bill 1178

The Utilization of Unused Prescription Drugs Act establishes a program to distribute unused prescription drugs among the medically indigent. The Georgia State Board of Pharmacy, the Georgia Department of Human Resources and the Georgia Department of Community Health will develop and implement the statewide plan to allow certain unused prescription drugs to be transferred from a health care facility to designated pharmacies for medically indigent patients. The legislation also allows a pharmacist to refuse to fill a prescription for a drug designed to terminate a pregnancy.
